

Imagining the Setting (Contextualizing)

- What else was going on at the time this was written?
- What was it like to be alive at this time?
- What things were different back then? What things were the same?
- What would it look like to see this event through the eyes of someone who lived back then?